Learn about the Hennepin County Sheriff's Office

May 3, 2011 (MINNEAPOLIS) – The Hennepin County Sheriff's Office invites you to learn more about how law enforcement works to improve public safety. The Sheriff's Office will conduct several classes during a day of learning known as, "One Day Citizen Academy," on Saturday, June 4, 2011. The event will be organized for members of the Somali community.

Hennepin County Sheriff Rich Stanek will speak to residents. Other speakers include Sheriff's Office personnel from the following Sheriff's Office units: Sheriff's Crime Lab, Narcotics, Detectives, Court Security, Enforcement Services, and Civil Unit. You will also tour the Hennepin County Jail.

What: One Day Citizen Academy

When: Saturday, June 4, 2011 at 9:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m.

Where: Hennepin County Public Safety Facility (also known as the Jail), located at 401 South 4th Avenue, Minneapolis, MN.

Why: You will gain a better insight into the Hennepin County Sheriff's Office.

How to register: You must register for the class by May 26, 2011. To register or for further information, please contact Derwin Ellis 612-348-3717 (derwin.ellis@co.hennepin.mn.us) or Hindia Ali Culusow 763-276-0205 (hindia.ali@gmail.com)

You must be at least 17-years-old to participate. The event is free and lunch will be provided free of charge.
