Possible Drowning in Crystal

June 25, 2010 (MINNEAPOLIS) – Early this morning, a 90-year-old woman was found unconscious in an indoor swimming pool in a senior citizen apartment complex at 2900 Douglas Drive.

At 5:45 a.m., a maintenance worker saw the woman swimming then he returned to the pool a short time later. At that time, he saw the woman in the deep end of the pool and she was unconscious. Crystal Police responded to the scene and administered CPR. Efforts to resuscitate the woman were not effective and she was pronounced dead at the scene at 7:08 a.m.

The Sheriff's Office is investigating the incident. The Hennepin County Medical Examiner is responsible for releasing the identity of the victim.
